Mrs Bellande.
On behalf of the Seniors of '69, I'd like to add another dedication to this book — to the teacher who gives so much time and cares so much about people — Mrs. B.

Thank you.

We are the music-makers,
And we are the dreamers
of dreams,
Wandering by lone sea-breakers,
And sitting by desolate
streams;
World losers-and world-forsakers
On whom the pale moon
gleams;
Yet we are the movers and shakers
Of the world forever,
it seems.

"The Kennedys"

Shakespeare has written: "When sorrows come, they come in battalions." To the Kennedys, they have come in divisions and regiments; still their indominable spirit remains unbroken. Despite their many sorrows, they still carry the torch high. The Kennedy's represent to the nation a beacon of hope and a tower of strength. Though John Fitzgerald Kennedy and Robert Francis Kennedy are gone, their dreams and beliefs have burned a lasting memory in our minds.

Once there were four brothers; now there is one. He is today the "Keeper of the Kennedy Flame." And as John Fitzgerald Kennedy once said about his youngest brother, Edward Moore Kennedy: "And the last shall be first."

We, the class of 1969, dedicate our yearbook to the Kennedy brothers.

"Gratitude is the memory of the heart." And though our gratitude is not easily expressed and often left unsaid, it is genuine and deep.

My dear Graduates:

It has been said,

"Mind is the Master-power that shapes and makes,
And Man, by his Mind, takes
The Tool of Thought, and, shaping what he wills
Brings forth a 'thousand joys' or a 'thousand ills'."

Your faculty, religious and lay, has given hours of time preparing your soul, spiritually, intellectually, morally and emotionally, so that you will take the Tool of Thought and fashion a 'thousand joys' for the world.

Wherever you are now, your thoughts, spiritually, intellectually, morally and emotionally, have brought you there. Whatever you are now, your thoughts have made you. Whatever you will be, your thoughts, spiritually, intellectually, morally and emotionally, will determine. Scripture tells us, "As a man thinks in his heart, so is he."

We, the members of your faculty at St. Dominic's, have tried to do our work well for you. We believe we have. We have confidence in you. We send you forth with God's blessing to bring a 'thousand joys' to the world.

Sincerely yours in our Lord,

Father Collins

"To wear the cloak of authority with gentle grace; to guide without duress."

Dear Seniors:

In our short acquaintance I have found you to be a class imbued with a great love and loyalty toward St. Dominic High School. The energy and enthusiasm you have exhibited in both curricular and extra-curricular undertakings will sustain the memory of the Class of '69 for many years.

In spite of difficulties there is always joy and excitement in working for something one cherishes. As you leave St. Dominic's, I exhort each of you to cherish two things: your faith and your country. Do not take either for granted. The success of your life will depend upon the love and loyalty you give to both.

May you be living witnesses to the Principles of Democracy and to the Principles of your Faith which formed the basis of your education at St. Dominic High School.

Sincerely,

Sister Patricia Burke, I.H.M.

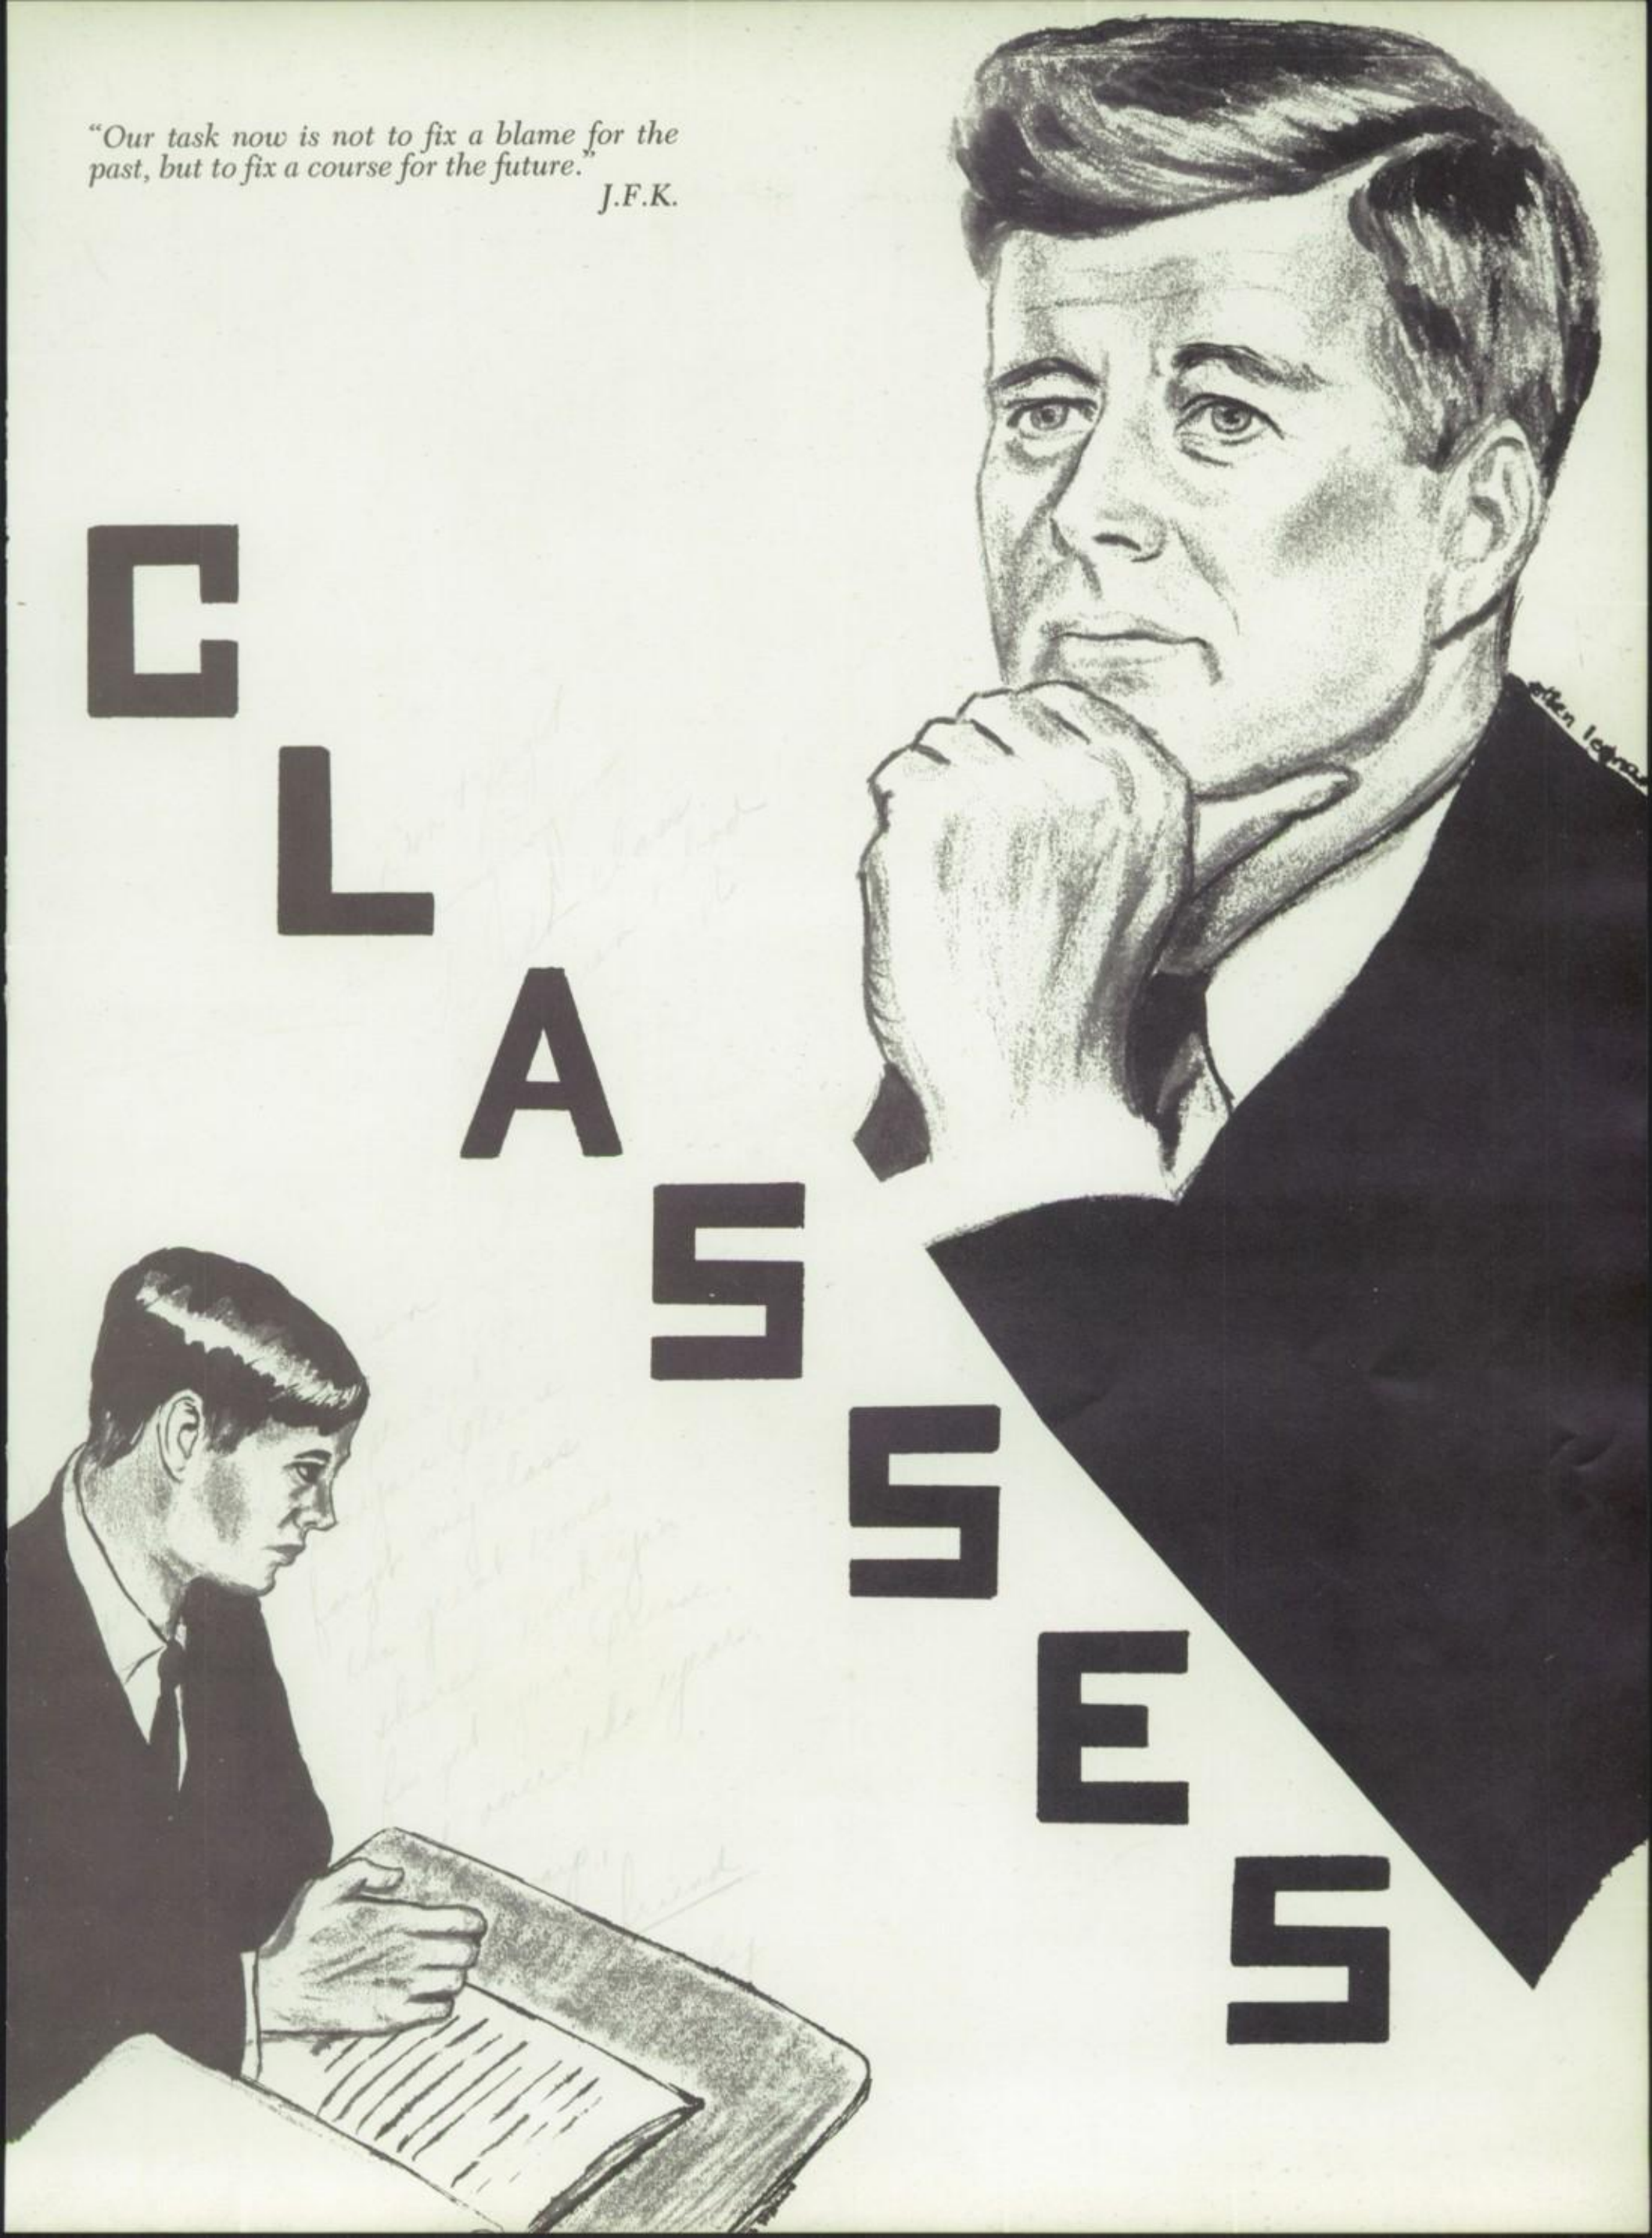
CLASSES



FRESHMEN

FRESHMAN II

Okay, pass out the peace pipes . . .

EARTH AND SPACE SCIENCE

"Use only the hard-boiled ones!"

ENGLISH I

Isn't that unusual—Marita Morrell is smiling!

AFRO-ASIAN HISTORY

Sister never heard "Flight of the Bumblebee" on a bongo before.

FRESHMAN I

Sue Crow displays her "Ultra Brite" smile.

FRESHMAN III

Looks like someone forgot the picnic basket.

FRENCH I

Wait Dave, this is French class, not Italian.

FRESHMAN IV

Why do Freshmen always look so happy?

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORE III

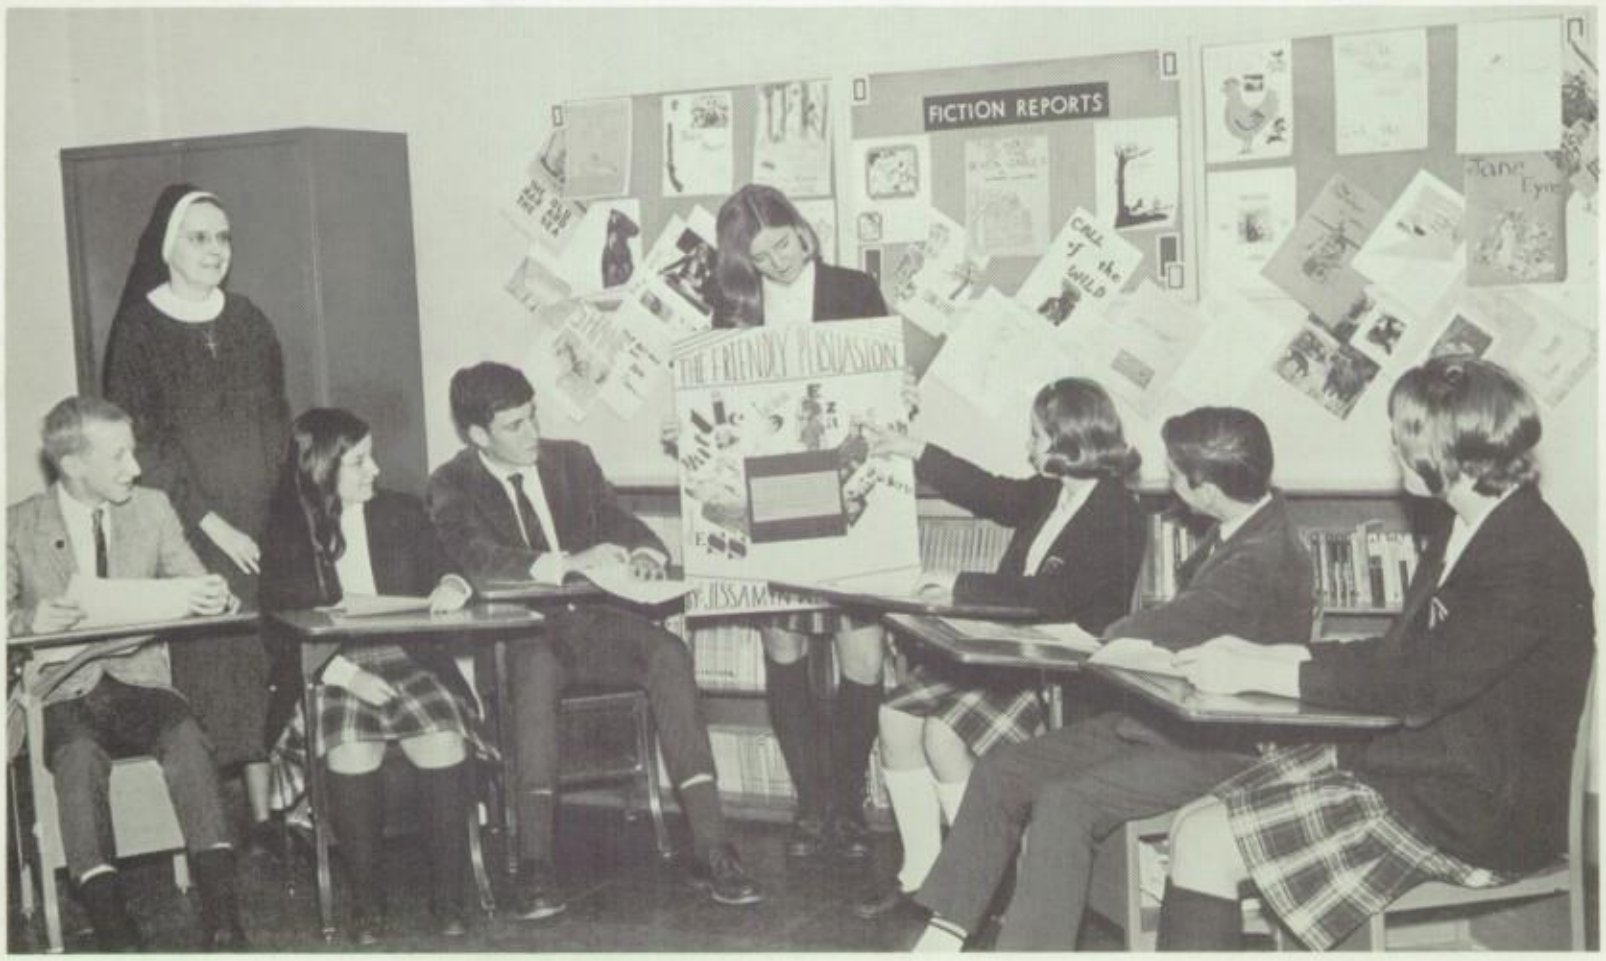
Barbara Murphy sings "A Taste of Lemon"

RELIGION II
So the Sophs can read Hebrew already?

SOPHOMORE I
Pat Dye and Debby Delaney have a smile for any occasion.

RELIGION II
The Sophomores excel at "Simon Says."

LATIN II
"Well, I don't know, Sister. I kind've liked the old habits."



ENGLISH II

Pat Dye tries some friendly persuasion.

SOPHOMORE II

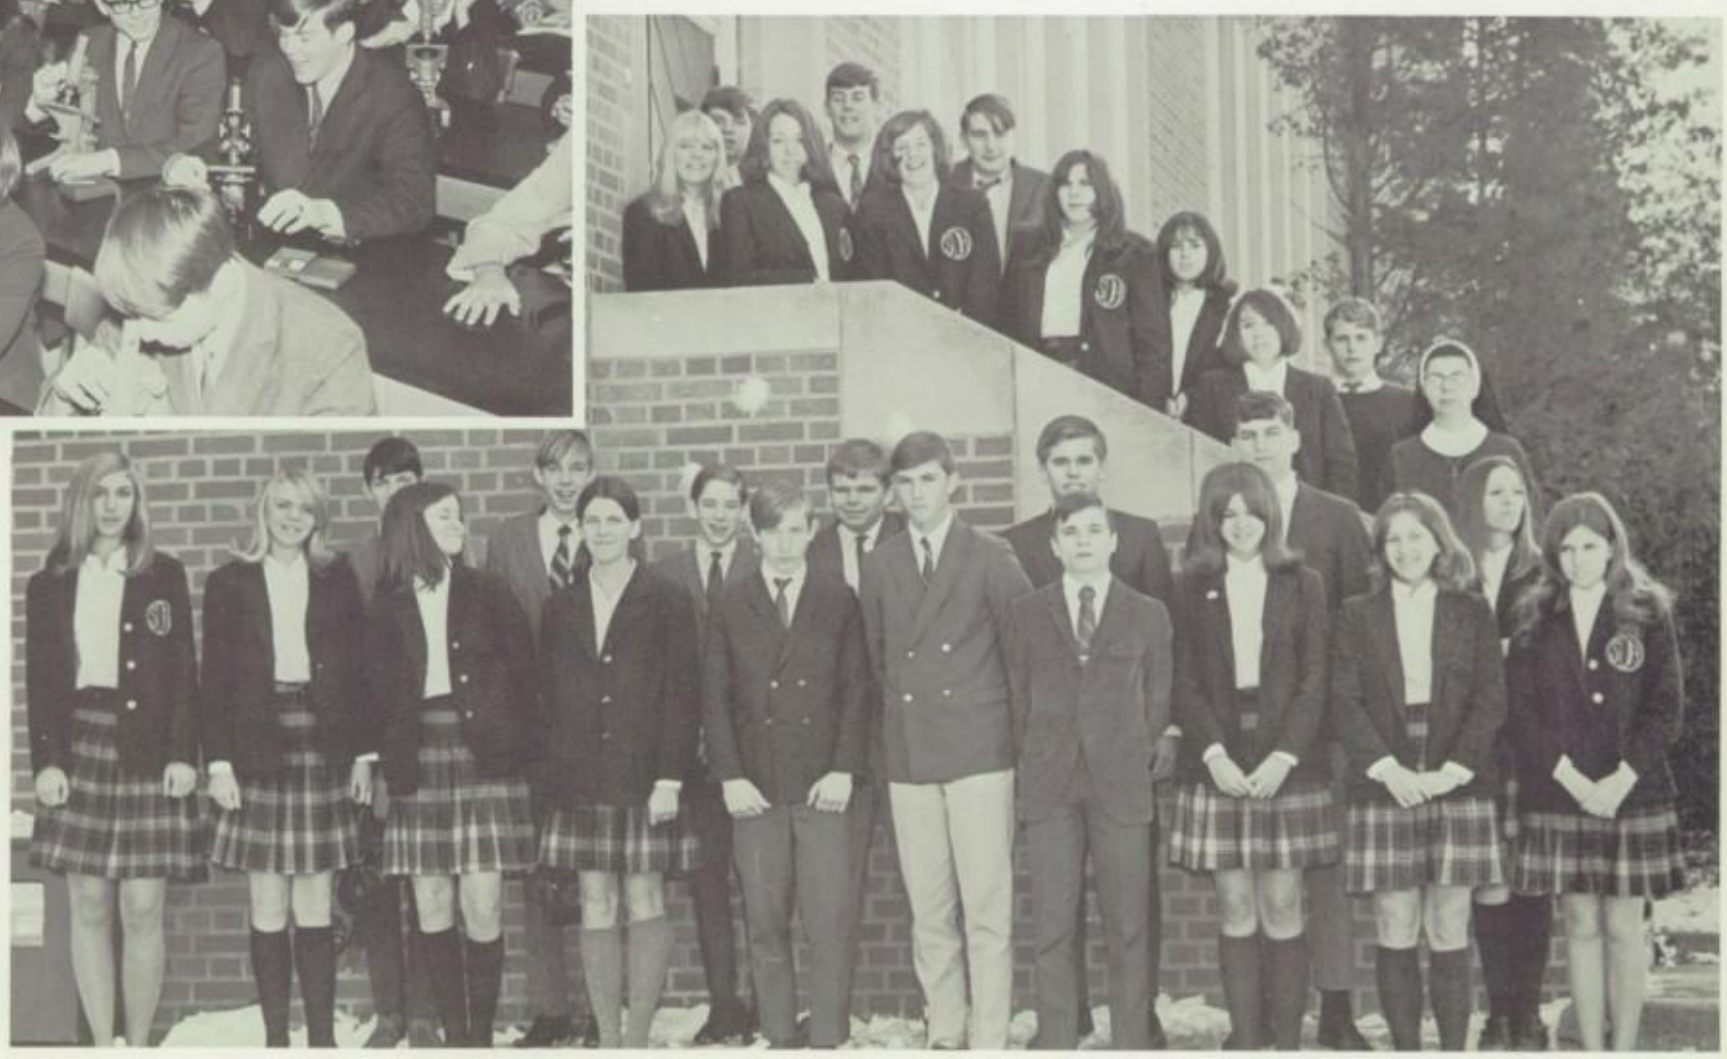
"Red Rover, Red Rover, let Billy Game come over."

BIOLOGY

ZAP! Mr. Stevens immobilizes another unsuspecting Soph.

SOPHOMORE IV

Helen Robinson's too proud to pose.



JUNIORS

ENGLISH III

Kevin Murphy wants to be on the girls' team.

JUNIOR I

Bob Catapano is obviously camera-shy.

JUNIOR III

Chris Parlante shows his serious side.

Open your mouth and close your eyes, and you will get a big surprise.

RELIGION III

"Noah's ark? Oh, it was about thirty cubits by forty cubits."

JUNIOR IV

The famous Junior IV poses with their leader.

AMERICAN HISTORY Oh, put your hand down. I haven't even asked the question yet!

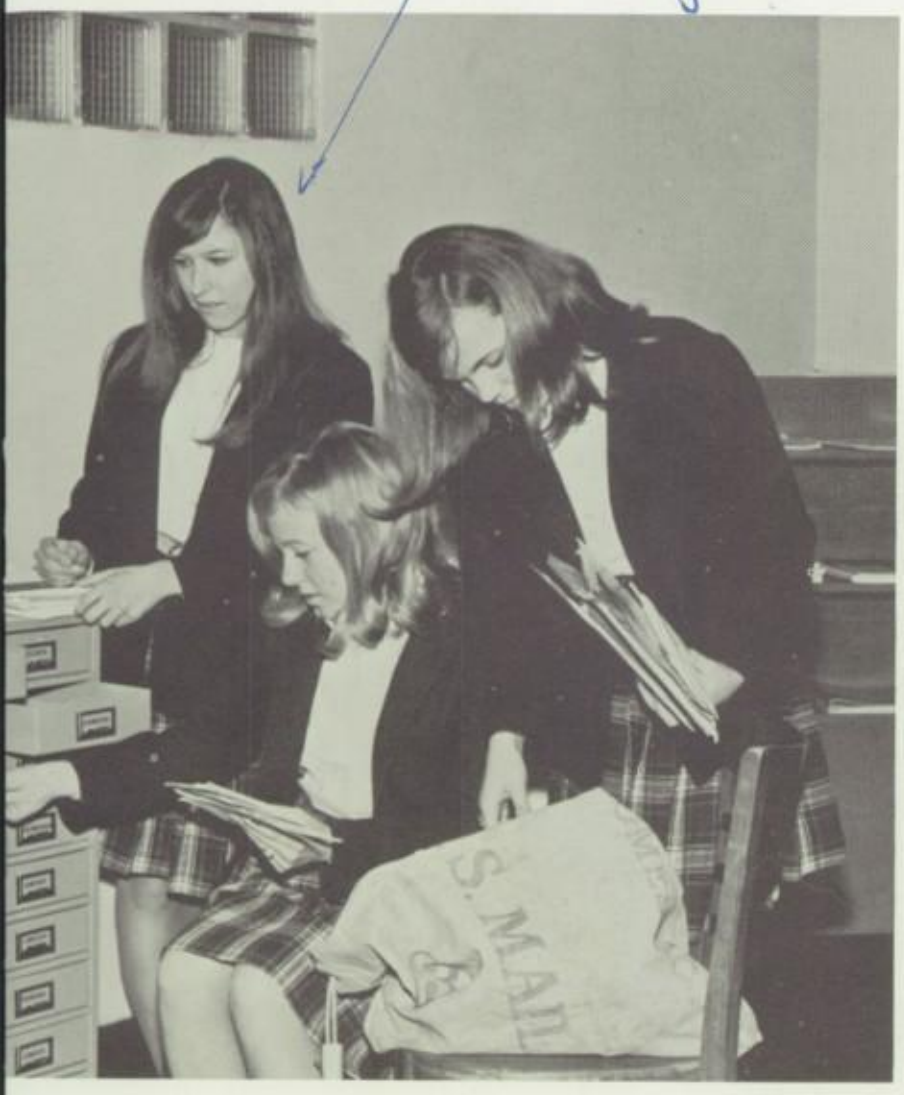
JUNIOR II

Cathy, will you quit trying to block out Sister?

Sister Albertus censors the faculty fan mail.



Another hawk-eyed hall monitor hard at work.

SENIORS

ENGLISH IV

Class is seasoned with a little parsley, sage, rosemary, and thyme.

ART III

Mr. Finesse doesn't look very happy about posing.

FRENCH IV
Tom Smith wails out "Frère Jacques."

Dear Mrs. Belleville, I'd like to thank you for whenever I'd like to thank you for whenever I'd like to thank you for whenever I'd like to thank you for whenever I'd like to thank you for a lot of reasons. Thanks a lot. Sincerely, Tom Smith.

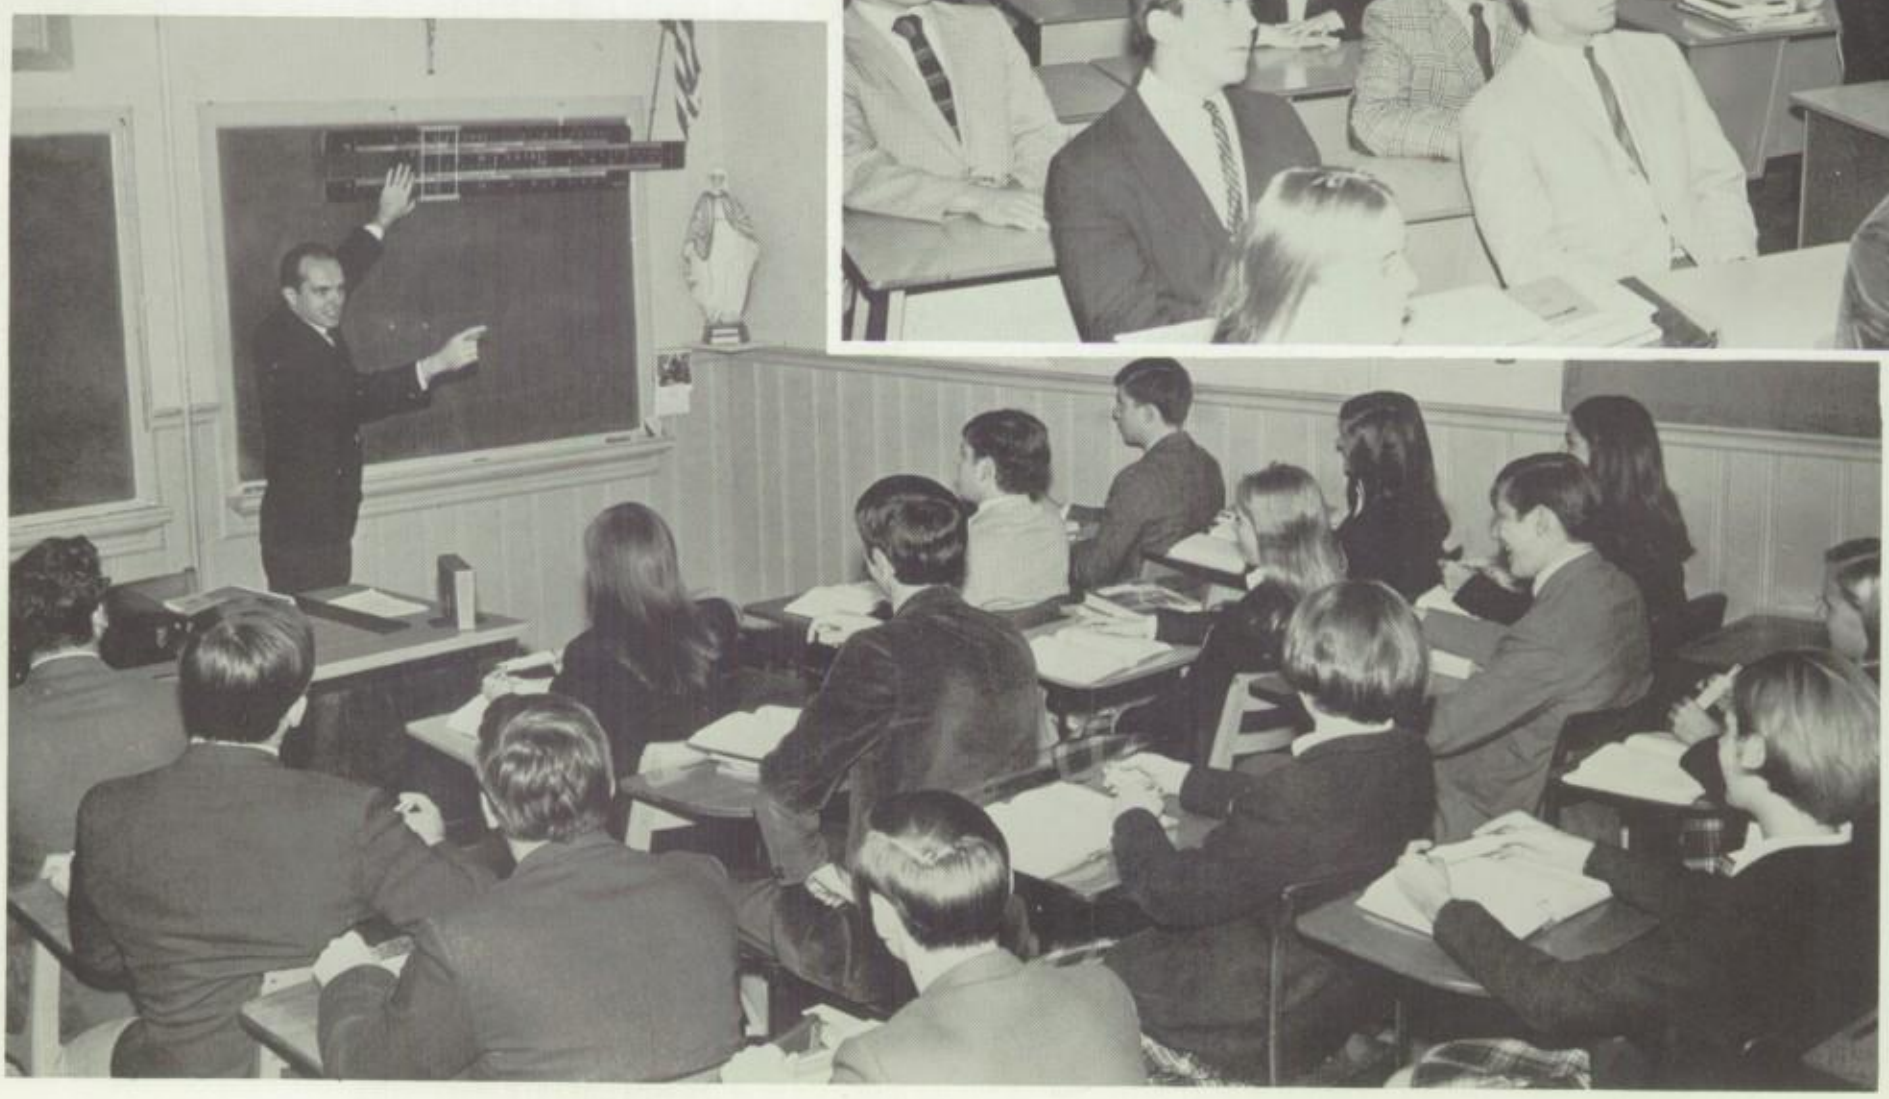
PHYSICS
"What do you mean, I look like Madame Curie?"

CALCULUS

"Is she for real?"

TYPING I
jjj kkg? Michael! Will you please concentrate!

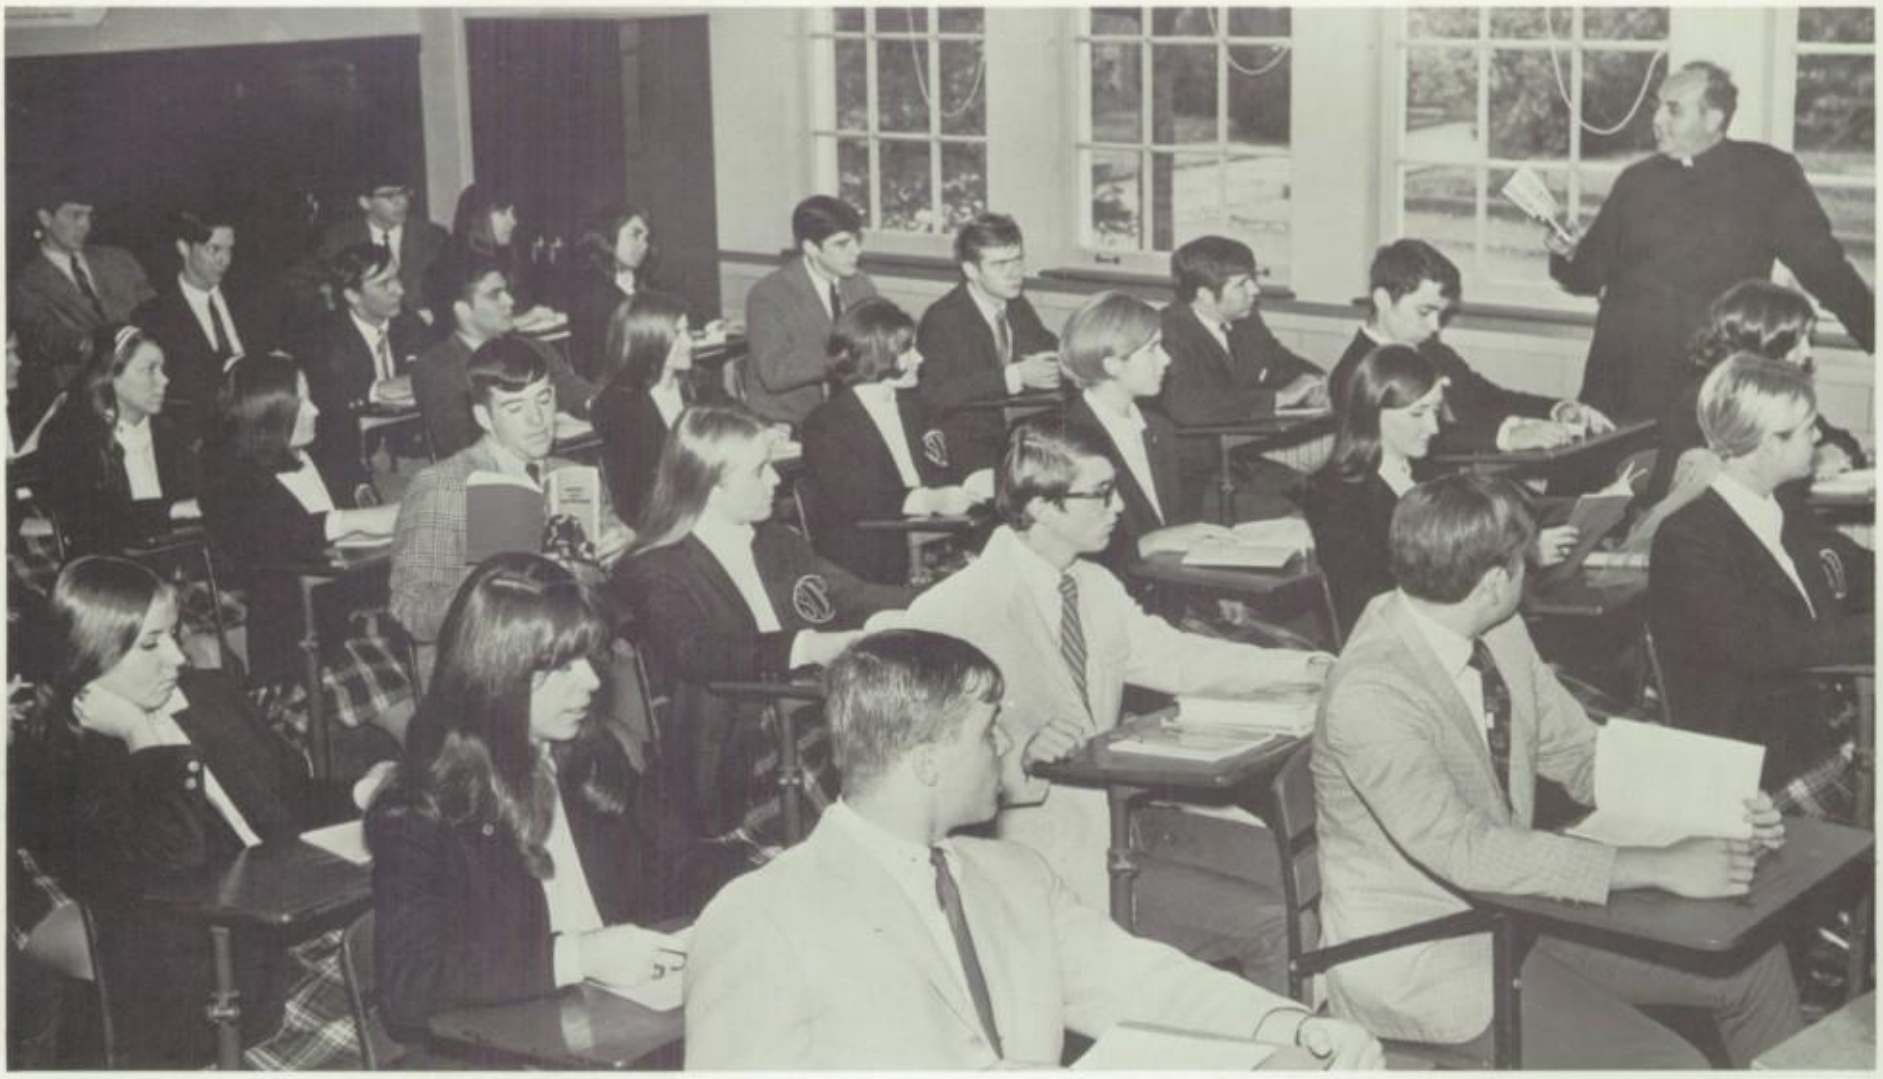
MATH 12
"Did I hear someone say he understands?"



FRENCH III
Who needs earphones, right Chrissy?

ECONOMICS
The class is totally absorbed in a "flick."

PHYSICAL EDUCATION
That's right, girls, follow the bouncing ball!



RELIGION IV

Frank's an unbeliever—he has to find out for himself.

GENERAL MUSIC

Ah, those golden goodies of the past.

SPECIAL PHYSICS — Here's concrete evidence that Mike Burns does go to some Physics classes.

There's nothing like a good meal to brighten up your day!

DRIVERS' EDUCATION — "Mr. Maguire, does that 'E' on the gas guage mean anything significant?"

HAPPENINGS

Mary Louise brings home first place for St. Dom's.

"You mean it wasn't Abe Lincoln who chopped down the cherry tree?"

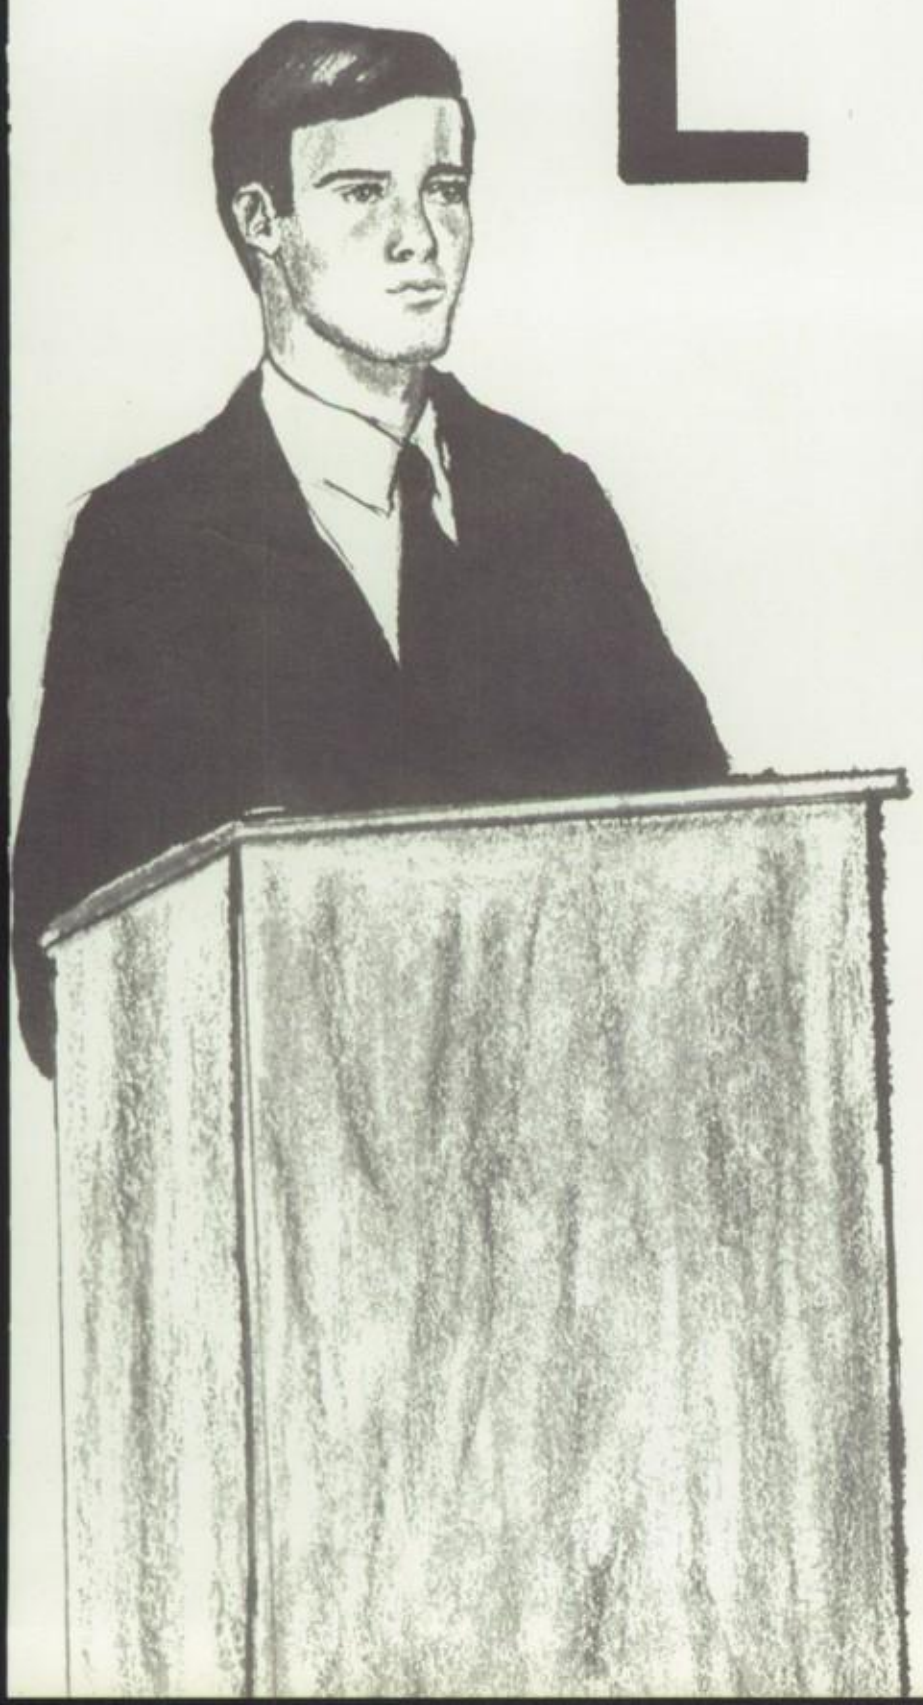
. . highly engrossed in modern guidance methods.

Jim Kelly confers with Sister Sheila, the educational consultant.

An experience with student teaching—Sister Mary Elizabeth.

"Few will have the greatness to bend history itself, but each of us can work to change a small portion of events."

R.F.K.



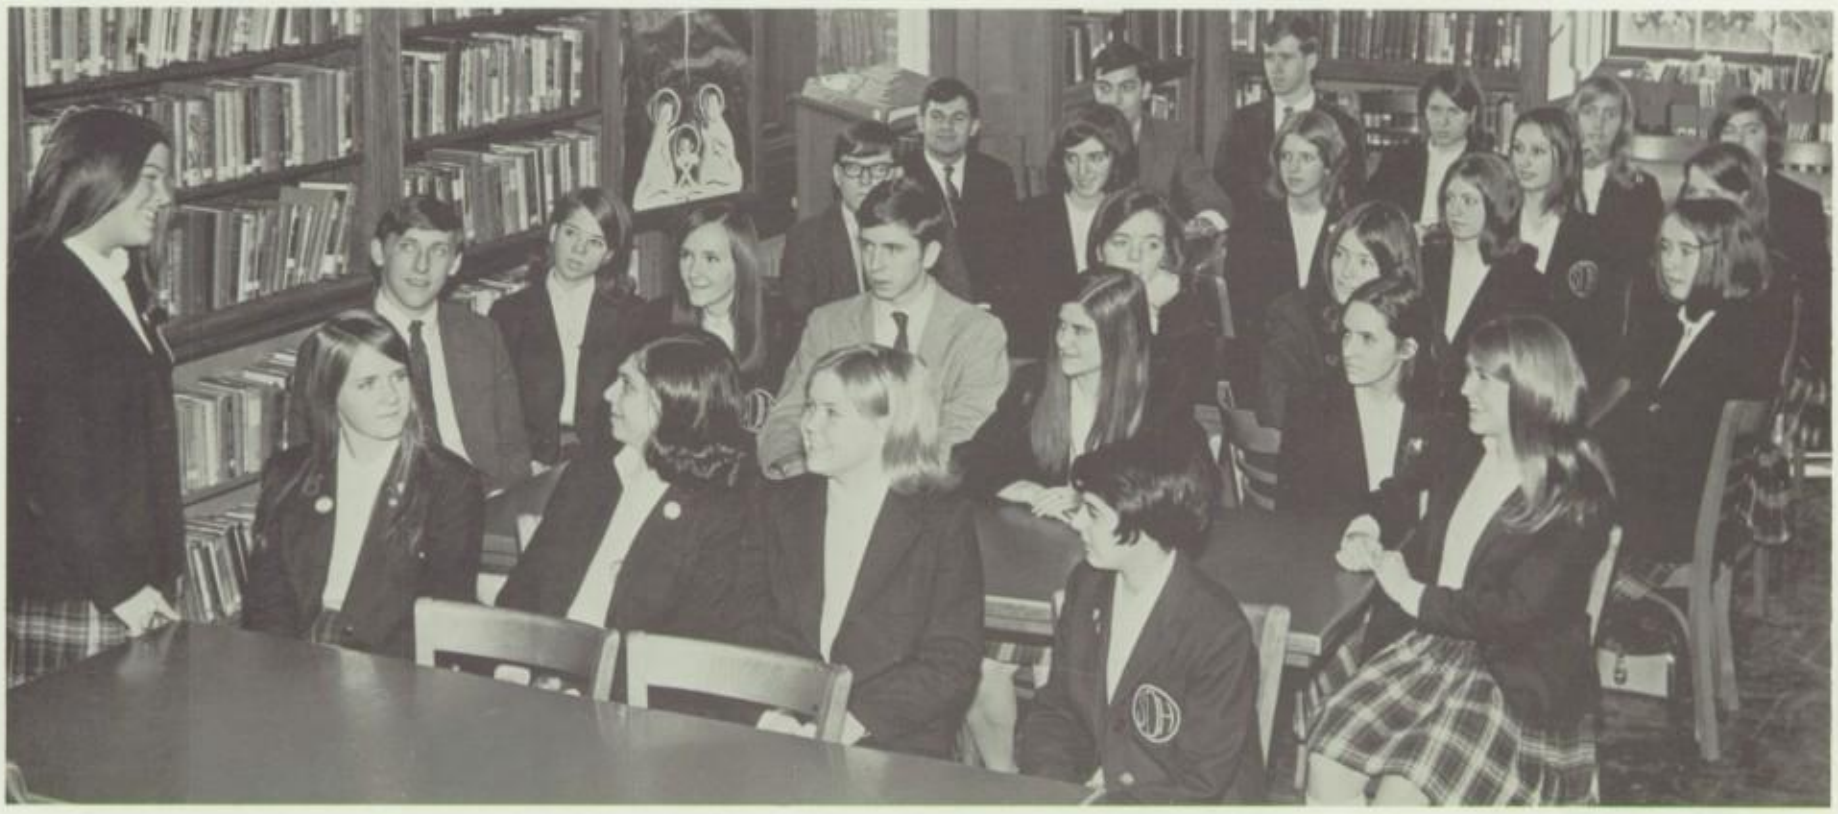
C L U B S

C.S.M.C.

Looks like Senior III is still forging ahead.

The Class representatives are engrossed in "The Shield."

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY



Donna and Marianne enjoy the joke, but Paula can't seem to concentrate.

Junior Candidates for the Honor Society.

"Wait, Thomasina! Are you sure these remarks are for the records?"

Pat Urbach never misses a chance to catch some ZZZ's.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Christy, this is Student Council, not Glee Club!

"And here's to you, Mr. Robinson."

It can always be said that Tom runs a relaxed meeting.

CHRISTIAN LIFE COMMUNITY

The Senior Sodality discusses future plans.

Look at these goodies! Canned brussel sprouts in onion sauce!

Mrs. Ballande,
You are one of the sweetest teachers I know. I am so happy that I made cheering because now you are my moderator!

Love
JoAnne
Ceccarelli

This year the CLC ran a successful drive to give aid to the Biafrans.

STELLA MARIS 1969

Boy, these editors can never agree on anything.

Business manager, Tom Kenney, congratulates top ad seller, Kathy Vincent.

Who else could they be but the sports section writers?

Valerie supervises while her staff does the work.

The Literary Staff had to put a lot of thought into these great (?) captions.

Betsy's not sure if Chrissy is kidding or not; Celeste works on.

Michael is dumb-struck: "You mean we have to have captions for every one of these things??"

"Now Jim, you're not supposed to take the ad money home with you!"

John and Celeste find another point to argue over, but Elise is unconcerned.

FORENSICS

Betcha can't take just one!

"One more remark like that, John, and my rebuttal will really be cutting."

Voted the Freshmen's most popular magazine—the "National Geographic."

"Is the roof leaking again?"

But Elise, you're not supposed to be with the Freshmen!

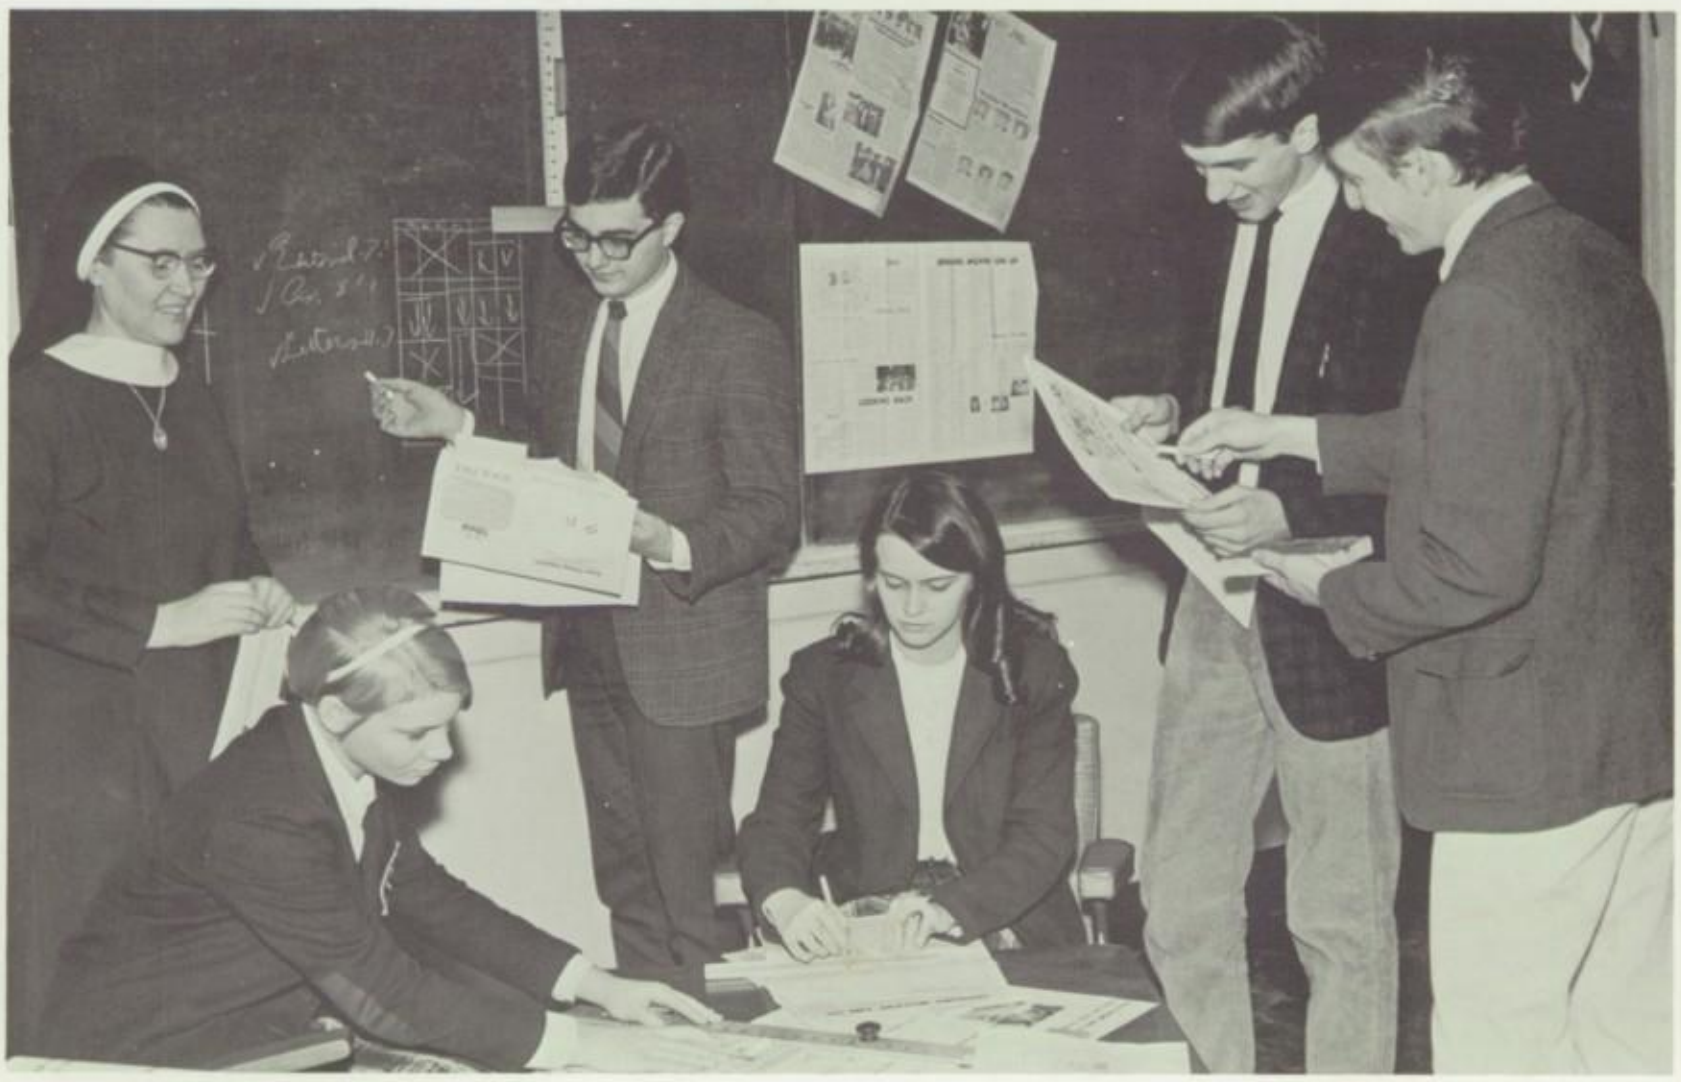
NyeeHaHaHaHa! Debby can get a laugh out of anything.

STUDENTS' PEN

Students' Pen Editor-in-chief, Mike Burns, checks the layout for the next edition with his page editors.

The typists and the proof-readers polish off those last few pages.

Pete and R.G. have the business end of the paper wrapped up.



There's always a deadline to meet.

The Senior Mathletes sure look like they know what they're doing.

MATHLETES

Welcome to Sleepwalkers Anonymous.

VARSITY CLUB

The Varsity Club strikes a typically organized pose.

FUTURE NURSES

Still can't hear a thing, huh, Pat?

FUTURE SCIENTISTS

So these are the Future Scientists? There's hope for the world yet!

FUTURE TEACHERS

They just can't wait 'til they're behind the desk.

Happy birthday to Michael. . .

PROM COMMITTEE

FRENCH CLUB

Mr. Maguire approves Mrs. Bellande's French Choristers

SECRETARIAL CLUB

Marietta directs the folding of Christmas cards for the sick.

LIBRARY AIDES

"No, Kathy, we don't file 'The Life and Times of L. B. J.' under Science Fiction."

BOOSTER CLUB

Watch those kneecaps, girls!

GLEE CLUB

Sister Josanne leads a sing-in.

JUNIOR DANCE COMMITTEE

"And the footbone's connected to the anklebone."

CHEMISTRY CLUB

"Better Living through Chemistry"?

DEAR MRS B.
I REALLY ENJOYED YOUR TEACHING. I HOPE YOU WILL COME WATER SKIING WITH JEAN KIPPE AND THE GANG. GOOD LUCK
Jean Nielsen

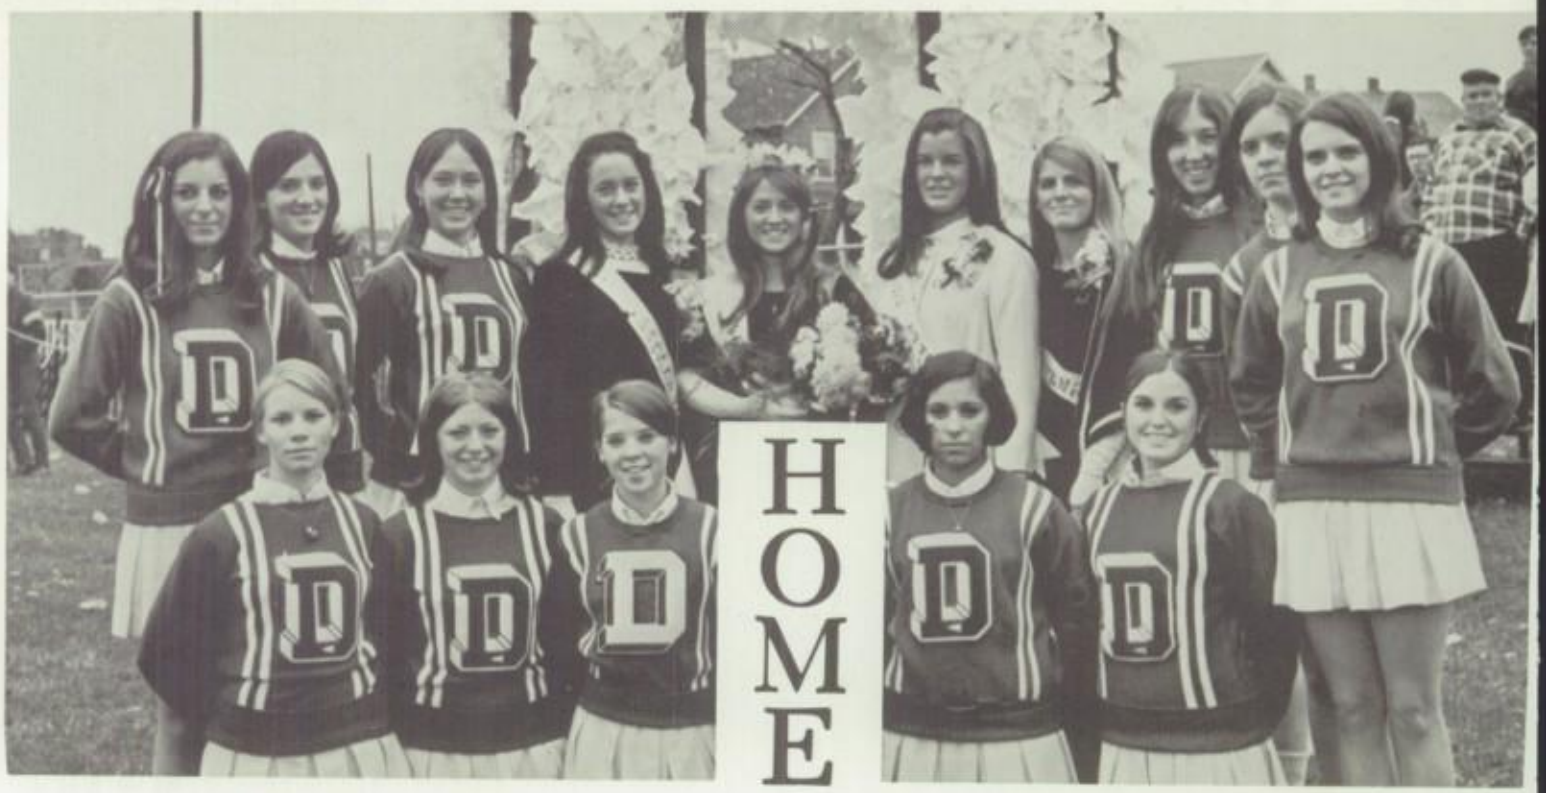
ACTIVITIES

"The question is not whether we are challenged, but how, and what we are to do about it."

E. M. K.

Our Homecoming float, by Mike Walston and Frank Ostaseski.



Anything to get out of wearing your uniforms, huh girls?

HOMECOMING

Marianne Brady—1968 Homecoming Queen

How did they ever pick just one?

NATIONAL HONOR INDUCTION

"What d'ya mean, 'the color's no good with your eyes'?"

"Congratulations! Not a single mistake in your speech!"

President Debbie Ford expounds on the virtue of "Character."

Donna Morrell, Vice-President, lights the light of "Service."

"Come on, who took my lunch box?"

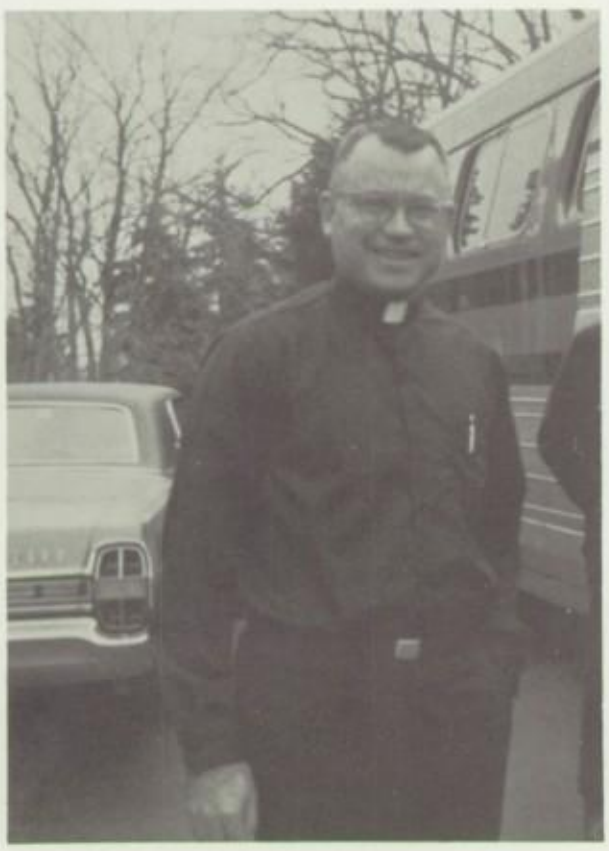
Fitz frets: "Oh, where's my harmonica?"

SENIOR RETREAT

"There's a fog upon L. A. . . ."

This page the compliments of
ST. BRIGID'S PARISH, WESTBURY
Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas F. Code, Pastor

Anne, wake up and wave at the camera!



A lasting impression . . .

Hurry, hurry! The chapel bell rang!

Sing-along Cassidy

Well, they can't be headed for gym!

OKLAHOMA

"Does anyone have any mission money?"

"Hey, Bogie, do you have any toothpaste?"

"Don't you ever talk to Danny again!"

This is "the leader who will save us"?

Practicing for the Rockettes.

Brenda forgot her bloomers.

O-K-L-A-H-O-M-A Oklahoma, yeow!!

On your toes, Debby, toes!

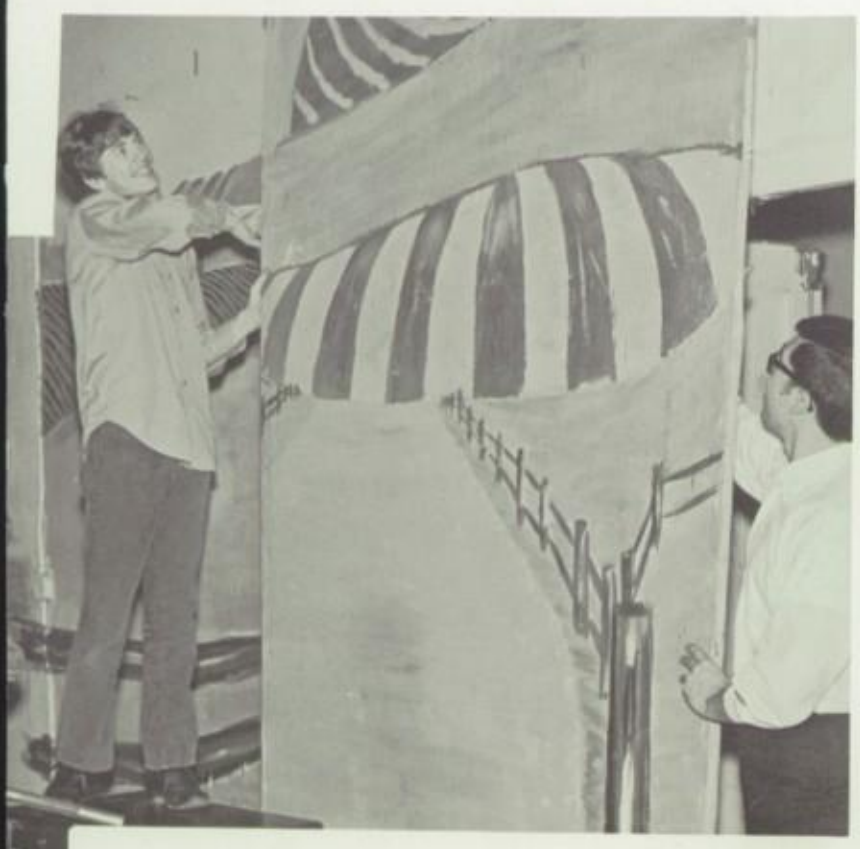
Out of her dreams?



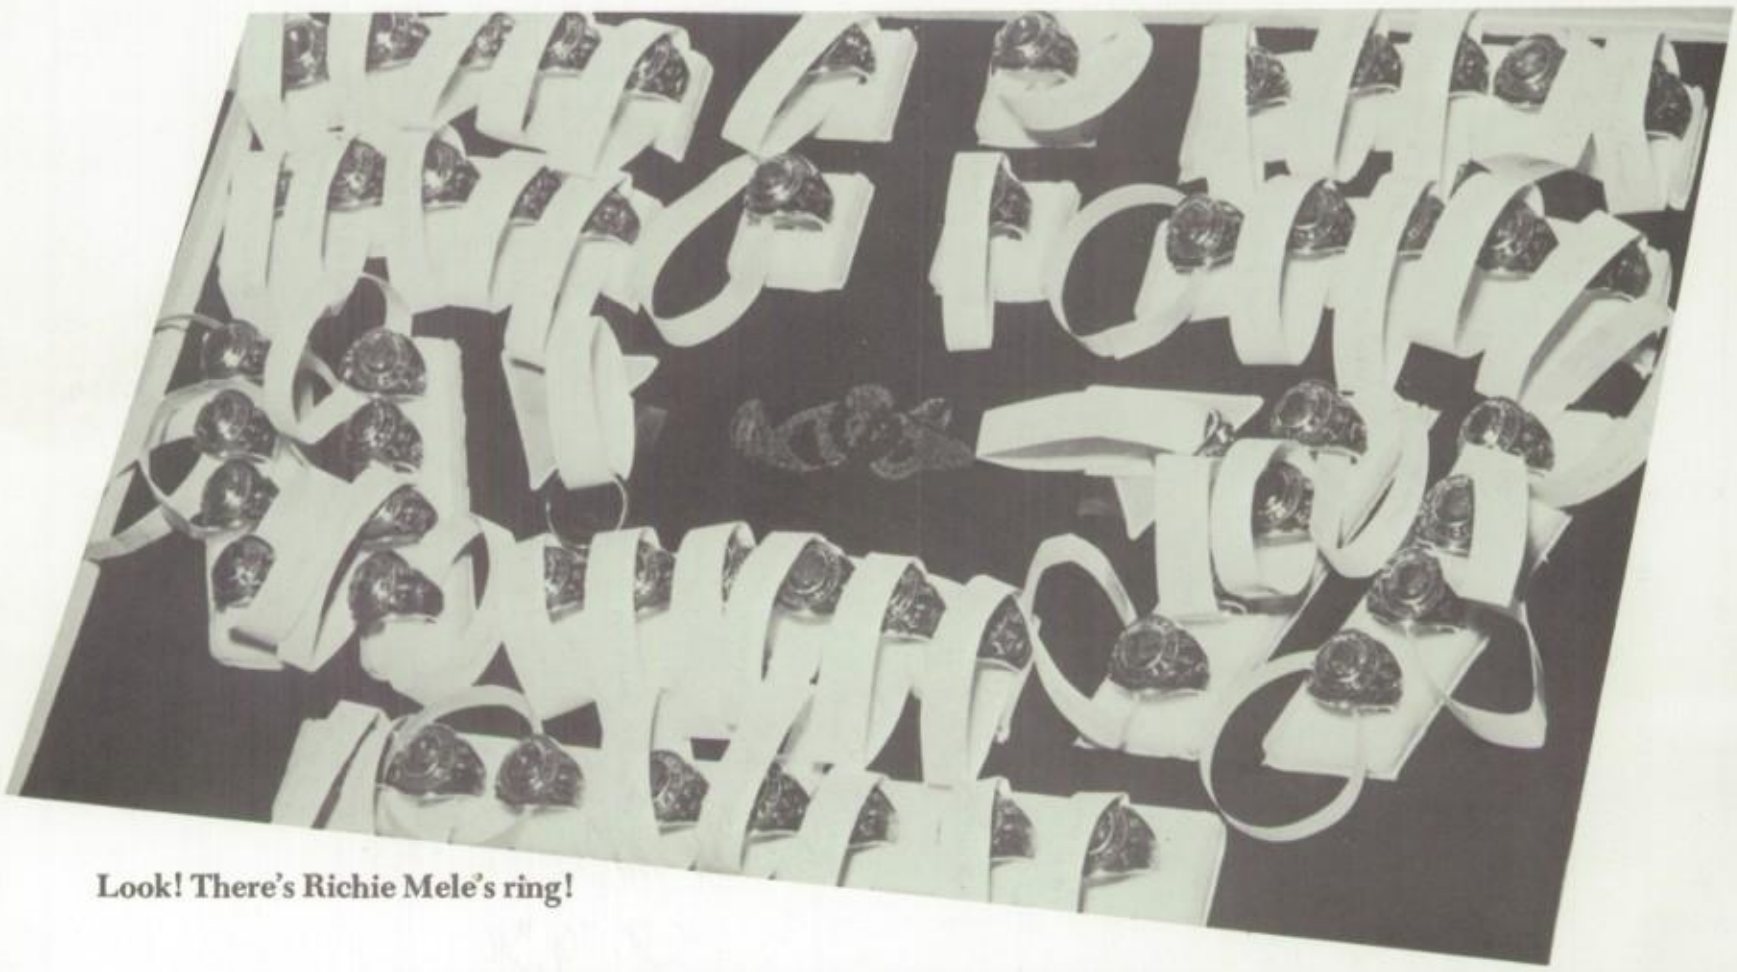
The stagehands are plotting another surprise.

"Hey, let me see!"

Kevin, if the ring fits, wear it!

It says here "Made in Hong Kong."

RING CEREMONY



Look! There's Richie Mele's ring!

What color did you say it was, Kathy?

This page the compliments of
NASSAU AVIATION SERVICE, INC.
Nicholas Yacur, President

RING DANCE

Teddy, you have to pay for them first!

Mike Burns doesn't like grass skirts . . . too long!

Fran wants to know when it's his turn to ride.

Okay, who turned the water on?

JUNIOR-SENIOR BASKETBALL GAME

Senior girls not only had the best shots, but the classiest clothes.

"... And drivin' Brenda Reiss is the leader of the pack."

You forgot to say, please!

With six balls, how did they lose?

HEART HOP

The King crowns the Queen—Anne Massey and Ron Ruggiero.

(l. to r.): Frosh—Tommy Burke, Jackie Cocks.
Sophs—Noreen Mehrtens, Kenny Nastri.
Juniors—Roberta Caltabiano, John Sheehan.

Who needs a partner? Just do your own thing.

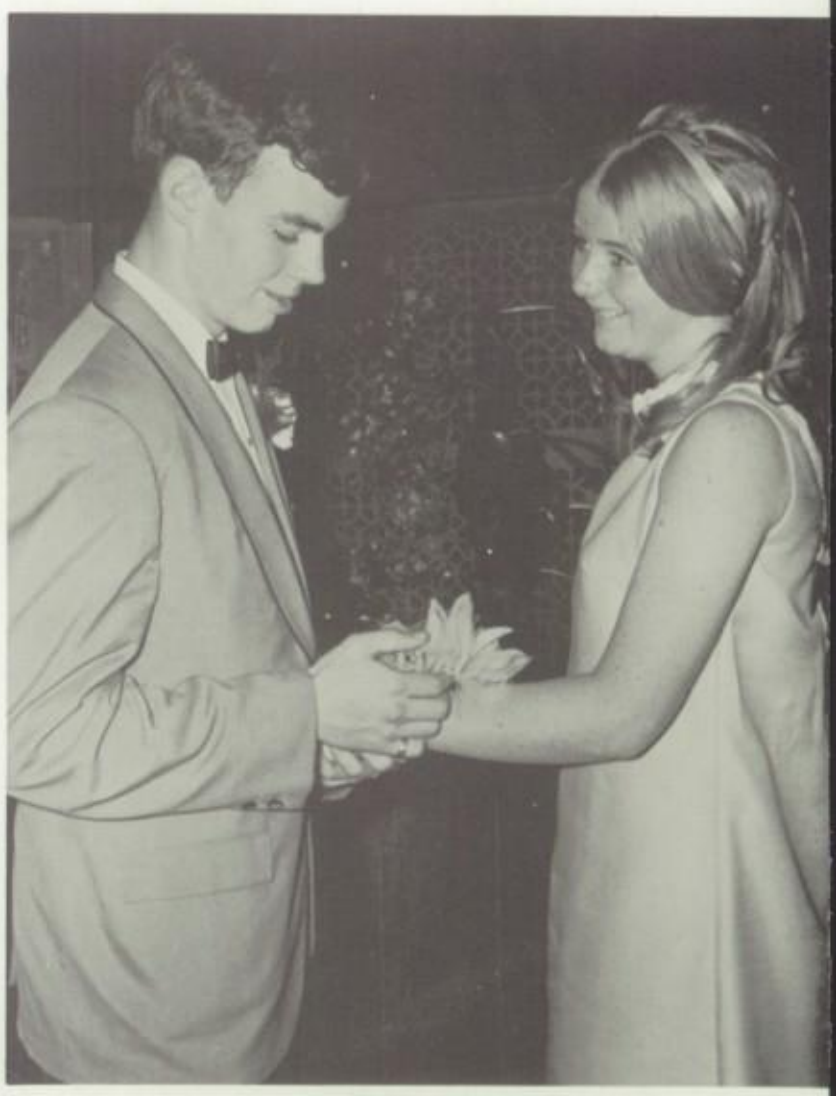
SOMEWHERE

"There's a place for us, a time and place for us."



"Hold my hand and I'll take you there."

"Time to learn, time to care."

"Somehow, Someday, Somewhere."

LOOKING BACK

Plotting the second French Revolution?

Isn't that . . .? No, it couldn't be . . Is it . . .? It is!! Super-Fitz!

Say, don't we know him from somewhere?

No! YOU move.

Mr. O'Hara has everything under control.

These are a few of my favorite things.

Mayor of Baghdad?

Somebody up there likes us.

Good ol' Davy Crockett and Bogie Boone.

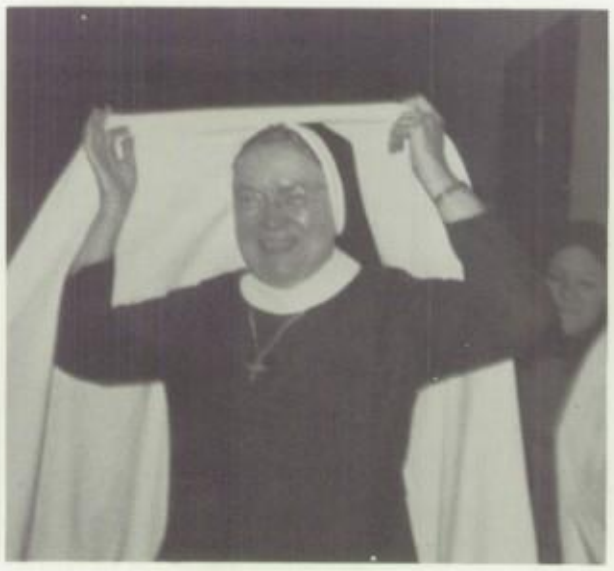
And I want a train and a pony . . .

"To eat or not to eat, that is the question."

They had that look of sure winners, didn't they?

SPIRIT OF '69

So where's Mrs. Muir?



I'm Mrs. Muir!

ABRACADABRACADEDRAS' let her in!

Coleen pauses for a moment of reflection.

Oh, that Imperial Margarine!

Did you say FOOD??

Boy, do I like hockey!

"Shuggah—PRUM!!"

And Pat's never been the same since.

"One man can make a difference, and every man should try."

EPILOGUE

WAVES

With each wave that breaks and foams,
Each wave that's ripped and torn,
Each wave that beats upon the sand,
A new generation is born.

It comes with the force of the universe,
It rushes brave and strong.
It sees what it has inherited,
And tries to right the wrong.

But after life must come the death,
As it does for every wave.
Then it's drawn back out to sea,
Out to its salty grave.

Before we are washed back out to sea,
And the shore is out of our reach,
We would like to someday claim
Our wave has changed the beach.

Thankyou for a great year 7
S parish and I hope you enjoy your summer!

John Mac Dermott

Dear Mrs Bellande

I really got to give you credit Mrs Bellande, not many new lady teachers could go through what you went through but you did so congratulations. I'll never forget all those nice discussions we had after a test! Have a good summer & I'll see you next year
